London, July 30, 1768.

THE Elector of Palatine's Minister at this Court has received Orders from his most Serene Electoral Highness, to acquaint the Merchants concerned in the Quicksilver-Trade, that one Mosengeil, Master of the Quicksilver Mines in that Electorate, having had the Assurance, from his own Accord, to sell that Commodity in Holland and England for four Years to come, free of all Charges to Amsterdam, at 73 Kreutzers per lb. has of late absconded. As the Quicksilver from that Electorate, at future Sales, might, by that Means, fall in Price; and as the said Mosengeil was never authorised to do so; this is to caution the Traders not to make any Advances to the said Mosengeil upon such Contracts.
